

Ordinary Bummer

Iggy Pop

Lovely games of yesterday
Have left me with my soul today
Felicity flies out the door
When people lose their warmth That's a very ordinary bummer
I'll hold out for summer days
Stand and laugh and run
In a quiet movie of mine I saw a girl with eyes like fire
I had to look away
She was swearing like a sailor
And demanding her own way That was when I knew, I had to love her
I opened up my sad old eyes
And let the feelings run
With a quiet beauty of mine
