Pumpkin Soup

Kate Nash

You chat to me like we connect
But I don't even know if we're still friends
It's so confusing, understanding you
Is making me not want to do
The things like I know I should do
But I trip fast and then I lose
And I hate looking like a fool
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
The lights are on and someone's home
But I'm not sure if they're alone
There's someone else inside my head
Living there too, fill me with dread
This paranoia is distressing
And I spend most of my nights guessing
Are we not, are we together
Will this make our lives much better?
I'm not in love, I just wanna be touched
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
Oops, I think I've got too close
'Cause now he's telling me
I'm the girl that he likes most
Now, I messed up, it's not the first time
I'm not saying you're not on my mind
I hope that you don't think I'm unkind
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
I just want your kiss, boy
I just want your kiss
