Pressure

Quadron

i've been trying to get you under my pressure i've been trying to hurt you for as long as i can remember looking for the spineless point and change your summer into winter when i look into your deepest i see myself at my weakest i am walking deep waters to burn your spendid and virtuous bridges but you said

but i wont grow grow grow
i've been trying to get your under my pressure you've accepted my crimes as if you knew they were coming like nicking candy from a kid you been defeating my verbal beatings no i wont stop my torture until you show you got tears too i'd rather you deal with your temper than feel your careless empathy but you said...
