

City Between

Sheila Nicholls

you by the ocean, me in echo park whole city between us writhing in the dark, i have comfort for you over here I have comfort for you.you are a roman and I am from greece, Im wondering if this elastic discipline will ever cease, this could be my demise, this could be yours or we could combine our strengths and mythologize our warscos I have peaceful for you over here.
I have peaceful for you.oh so close baby will you make it, will you come to me, cos Im still waiting for this thing to get simple and feel the length of your skin grazing me.yeah well this road is feathered and this road is tarred first it was bricked and now it is barred.
but I have solace for you over here, I have solace for you.
