Inside My Head

Orgy

Every time you think of me like your gn trophy
It just pushes me away
Pushes meI never said I'd make you mine
Why do you insist on pushing all the time
I know it's not my vivid imagination
Telling you lies
Telling you liesIt's funny how you found the time
To expose yourself and be another one of these
Psychos all around me
Psychos all around me
Like to say my head's not right
My head's not rightMedicated aren't we all
Turning into you
Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changing
Nothing's changing
I want to run away
And you say it's alright
I want to run awayWalk away
Just go
I think you're pushing, pushing me
To seek and discover to notice you're different than all the rest
Keeps telling me to ask whyWould it really hurt you to leave me alone sometimes
To seek and discover your genius uncovered
Your pain
Nothing's changing
Nothing's changingMedicated aren't we all
Turn me into you
Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changing
Nothing's changing
I want to run away
And you say it's alrightI want to run away
Pushing me away
Pushing me away
Pushing me away
Pushing me, pushing me

Pushing meMedicated aren't we all
Turning into you
Got me crazed with what you do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changingMedicate it are we're all
Turn me into you
You do
Inside my head there's a vision of you
And nothing's changingNothing's changing
Nothing's changingMaybe it's not me
It's all inside my head
Maybe it's not me
