Inside My Head

Orgy

Every time you think of me like your gn trophy

It just pushes me away

Pushes meI never said I'd make you mine

Why do you insist on pushing all the time

I know it's not my vivid imagination

Telling you lies

Telling you liesIt's funny how you found the time

To expose yourself and be another one of these

Psychos all around me

Psychos all around me

Like to say my head's not right

My head's not rightMedicated aren't we all

Turning into you

Got me crazed with what you do

Inside my head there's a vision of you

And nothing's changing

Nothing's changing

I want to run away

And you say it's alright

I want to run awayWalk away

Just go

I think you're pushing, pushing me

To seek and discover to notice you're different than all the rest Keeps telling me to ask whyWould it really hurt you to leave me alone sometimes

To seek and discover your genius uncovered

Your pain

Nothing's changing

Nothing's changingMedicated aren't we all

Turn me into you

Got me crazed with what you do

Inside my head there's a vision of you

And nothing's changing

Nothing's changing

I want to run away

And you say it's alrightI want to run away

Pushing me away

Pushing me away

Pushing me away

Pushing me, pushing me

Pushing meMedicated aren't we all Turning into you Got me crazed with what you do Inside my head there's a vision of you And nothing's changingMedicate it are we're all Turn me into you Got me crazed with what you do You do Inside my head there's a vision of you And nothing's changing Nothing's changing Nothing's changingMaybe it's not me It's all inside my head Maybe it's not me It's all inside my head And nothing's changing It's all inside my head And nothing's changing It's all inside my head
