If I Fail

Dead Prez

"Time to go, this is goodbye," she said
Does it ever get easier to live like this?
And to kiss the cheek, I can't kiss you anymore
And I, I would honestly love you now
But I would lovingly let you down
Oh, I have the hardest time
Resisting you, and, oh, if you
If you feel the same way
Then how can we be friends?
He's right you know
We can't go on like this
And I try to give you everything
And if I fail, well, then I fail
But at least I gave you something
I can put my trust in giving up the heart
That makes the difference
And how can you afford to settle down?
When I, I would promise to love you now
But I will lovingly let you down
Oh, I have the hardest time
Resisting you, and, oh, if you
If you feel the same way
Then how can we be friends?
He's right you know
We can't go on like this
And I try to give you everything
And if I fail, well, then I fail
But at least I gave you something
It's better than silence
Give me one good reason
It's better than silence
(You know)
Give me one good reason
(You know)
To leave this in silence
(You know)
You don't have a good reason
(You know)
If you feel the same way

Then how can we be friends?
He's right you know
We can't go on like this
And I try to give you everything
And if I fail, well, then I fail
But at least I gave you something
It's better than silence
It's better than silence
