

Look At Me

Keith Allison

Look at me,
Tell me what do you see?
Does my soul lay broken inside? Look at me,
Tell me what do you see?
Have my tears washed away my foolish pride? The nights are so long,
The days come on strong.
Look at me,
Tell me what do you see? The pain I have borne,
My body so worn.
Look at me,
Tell me what do you see? The nights are so long,
The days come on strong.
Look at me,
Tell me what do you see? The pain I have borne,
My body so worn.
Look at me,
Tell me what do you see?
