

So Cool

Great Bloomers

I'm so cool You never call me like you promise to That's okay
'Cause every single day I'm cool
You used to say That for me you'd go and get the moon
You never did
But it brought the sun and moon and stars
I'm cool, baby, I'm so cool You promised me the world in the beginning
Though I never asked you for a thing
But all of a sudden, a whole lot of nothing
It's all that you'd ever bring I never needed cars or clothes or jewelry
Or anything else you were promising
All that I needed was to be treated
Like you cared, [Incomprehensible] for me
But you couldn't even do it so So after everything you put me through
I just want you to know
That I've moved on and baby, I'm so cool
So cool, hey, so cool, oh yeah It wasn't hard to find a better you
I'll be alright
No, don't you worry, baby, I'm so cool
I'm so cool I used to walk around with a [Incomprehensible]
But know he keeps me smiling every day, I'm cool
Hey, the only thing I really wanted from you
Was the only thing you'd never do Love and affection, [Incomprehensible]
So I had to quit you
'Cause you didn't even do it so So after everything you put me through
I just want you to know
That I've moved on and baby, I'm so cool
So cool, yeah, so cool, yeah It wasn't hard to find a better you
I'll be alright
No, don't you worry, baby, I'm so cool
I'm so cool Baby, I'm so cool
Finally done with you
On to something new
So cool, so cool Baby, I'm so cool
Finally done with you
On to something new
So cool, so cool So after everything you put me through
I just want you to know
That I've moved on and baby, I'm so cool

So cool, so cool, soIt wasn't hard to find a better you
No, don't you worry, baby, I'm so cool
I'm so cool, I'm so cool
