

Sayonara

GACKT

Sayonara...my beloved, precious person
Spilled tears change into snow
Sayonara...myself who was crying until yesterday
Quietly close your eyes

You casually brushed me aside
And leaned against the window
Acting like a little bit of shy
I was laughing
I light kissed your cheek
And always watched you
As you walked away

Sayonara...my beloved, precious person
Spilled tears change into snow
Sayonara...myself who was crying until yesterday
Quietly close your eyes

At a small table
It was just our dreams...
We weren't afraid of anything
Not even the unseen future
I softly looked at you in the first album
You look so happy

Sayonara...my beloved, precious person
Only my feelings for you will surely remain
Sayonara...myself who was crying until yesterday
It's a quiet night, isn't it
