De La Soul

- Here come the mic dude, so just walk

Hey guys I got your mics

- About time

- What up man?

Who's mic one?

- That's me

And mic two?

- Thanks

- Let's go

Let me get the door for you

Good luck guys

One two, one two

We bout to burn this shit downYo, there's a fire in the kitchen, it's like nine cooks

The kool-aid got spiked with porcupines, look

Rode into Rigo, this ain't a fast track

Your tickets ain't straight, TSA your ass back

NASDAC, IBM, the big [?] on the block

Bitch, I be him

The rock mega death, we gonna kill the Kane

Fuck everyone, bitch, bring everything

Swing like a mandolin, this ain't a sex toy

This ain't [?], this hot shit, push the dagger in the devil's eye

Slick Rick, yo, get the big dick, yo

Blow the dust covers, pick the [?]

New game, new players, new year

The hardest rock shit you gon' hearWe are the way the Lord intended

Her ass, she got it from her momma

Tits from the doctor

Figures fiddelin' the [?]

She looks like an [?]

Fresh off the pole, hanging from her hook

I'm in her [?] know to hit

Just to say that I caught her (click, click)

My hardware is progressive

[?] crime language leaning on obsessive

The Lord looking down, judging, the room [?] smudging

But I'm over your stars screaming the moon ain't nudging

Ain't from Hollis, don't need to tell you who is

But who it here raise hell, they be like "you kid"

A man [?] [?] lyrical blood splatter over the texture
We live by that code, not to regret living
Electric guitar sparks and nights gun powder
A sabbath ain't black enough to call my bluff, bitch
The kill switch turns it louderThey're everything
Fuck everyone
Burn everything you see
Not just clinging to the planet [?]
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
Fuck everyone, fuck everything
[?] surrender to the cause
Meeting your creator on the day you are destroyed
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
Fuck everything
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
Fuck everything
(Fuck everyone, fuck everything)
