Totally Natural

SpiderSimpson

Look at his hand move! Well actually he's a white ghost Check out the shape of his hips as he goes! Well he's totally natural! Performing in a video. He's totally natural! (he's only an actor) But something's lost underneath, He's so beautiful to see, Enter the wounded animal, Refuse the medals they bestow Shake a hand, take a bow (He's on the screen...) It's so au natural (He's only an actor) They change the broken one by one Of the molten-sod illusion of a broken home It's a bottle that's warming on the shelf It's a street fight, it's a Friday night alone It's feeling just inches away from death It's a street, it's an icicle It's a panic attack, it's only an act, yeah.
