All Stand Up (never Say Never)

Status Quo

All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, are you ready for the weekend? Are you ever
All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, let me hear you say we're gonna get together

Working all week 'til Friday
Wish I could do it my way
Until when I'm living it up
I ain't giving it up
Making the best of my lot
One of these days when I stop
And I'm gonna be living it up
I won't be giving it up
Telling you now it's my day
Oh, I'm gonna do it my way

All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, are you ready for the weekend? Are you ever
All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, let me hear you say we're gonna get together

The job, it just drives me crazy
Guess I'm a little lazy
I don't care "cause what do they know?
They'll be there when I go
Every day feel like screaming
Nothing gonna stop me dreaming
And there's one thing sure that I know
I can't wait for the whistle to blow
Telling you now it's Friday
I'm gonna do it my way

All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, are you ready for the weekend? Are you ever
All stand up, let me hear you say never say never
All hands up, let me hear you say we're gonna get together

Living and loving and learning
Gotta keep the whole world turning

So come on, let's give it a try
No use in wondering why
Running away and hiding
Taking our time and finding
If we stop then it's all gonna go
Don't wait for the whistle to blow
Every day feel like screaming-
