Hoping That You're Hoping

Sweethearts of the Rodeo

Every minute of the day I'm thinking 'bout you
And without you, life is just a crazy dream
Every breath I take I'm hoping that you're hoping
That I'm hoping you'll return to meDo you remember dear when you said
If I ever stopped loving you, you'd rather be dead
Well, dear I don't know what on earth changed your mind
No matter who's holding you, your heart is still mineEvery time I think about the way
You'd cuddle up and snuggle up and thrill me with your charms
I get dizzy in the head and it seem that I'm dreaming
I'm locked in your loving armsDo you remember dear when you said
If I ever stopped loving you, you'd rather be dead
Well, dear I don't know what on earth changed your mind
No matter who's holding you, your heart is still mineEvery minute of the day I'm thinking 'bout you
And without you, life is just a crazy dream
Every breath I take I'm hoping that you're hoping
That I'm hoping you'll return to meEvery breath I take I'm hoping that you're hoping
That I'm hoping you'll return to me
