

Catch My Fall

Katy Rose

I wonder why it always feels like rain
My life is like some cheap champagne
The answers don't always seem to fit
My glass is full, but it tastes like shit I need a quick decision
And a cheap reward
I'm in my last revision
Hey- hey-hey-hey So I'll cry just a little bit longer
And I'll stay two seconds more
And I'll try to be stronger
And I'll see if you catch my fall I can't tell if what I did was wrong
But you followed me like a sing-along
I can't tell if what I did was right
Still you let me go like your sisters kite I need a quick decision
And a cheap reward
I'm in my last revision
Hey-hey-hey-hey So I'll cry just a little bit longer
And I'll stay two seconds more
And I'll try to be stronger
And I'll see if you catch my fall Yea yea yeaaaaa
Yea yea yeaaaaa
Yea yea yeaaaaaaaaa I've made my last decision
And got some cheap reward
I need no man's permission[instrumental] So I'll cry just a little bit longer
And I'll stay two seconds more
And I'll try to be stronger
And I'll see if you catch my fall
If you catch my fall
Catch my fall
Ya catch my fall
Fall
