Two Kings

At Vance

Raising like brothers
Sharing their dreams
Feeling protested
(but) it's not like it seemedJelousy grew
As time went on by
Nobody knew
That their love was a lieUnspoken hate
Tor them apart
They had to wait
The fight couldn't startSlaved by their descent
Unable to slove
Searching the reason
Searching the truthDestiny paid it's dues
And they have nothing left to loose(so they) both build a kingdom
Reigning different worlds
They were like
FIRE AND ICEOne have the poverty
One lived in luxuryThey ruled
HEAVEN AND HELLBoth ruled their nation
With power and strength
Darkshaded warriors
Waiting to strike
Like vultures who circle
On the top of their victims
Patient they are waiting
'til their time has comeTagedy took it's all
And the winner took it all[Chorus]
