

On My Mind

Kora

I keep going down this path I only know,
People always push me around thats no joke,
but I kept on my tracks stayed straight followed through,
Theres only one remedy i can think of for you,
If you only listened once, Maybe you could've made it back
Sorry jack, you out of luck, Your compares on track (oh no x3)

I kicked it down the road,
Don't want to, Don't have to
But everythings in place and I dont seem to,
Love it, My family,
You were on my mind

Don't fake me, Don't play me,
I'll smash you in the face and you wont like it,
All I see is tragedies,
You were on my mind,

You never know whats on,
It only seems to make me think,
That something just dont seem too right for me,

Now I dont seem to care and I dont wanna fuss,
But who are you to say that I cant be that one on the bus,
People always talk about whats the colour of my hair,
People always seem to know, Why do people even care,
You'll always seem to make the same mistakes as me,
But I don't want too be the one who causes trouble now,
Please leave me alone (oh no x3)

(ohh baby) I kicked it down the road,
As it once for ? and two for the ?
How was I suppose to know that you were in a gang
They were always into your love life,
They would ?
They were always chasing girls, why am i the one to blame,
How was I suppose to know you been playing games with me
Situation always different

How was I suppose to know (x6)

Don't want to, Don't have to
But everything's in place and i don't seem to,
Love it, My family,
You were on my mind

Don't fake me, Don't play me,
Ill smash you in the face and you wont like it,
All i see is tragedies,
You were on my mind,

Cos you never know whats on,
It only seems to make me think,
That something just don't seem too right for me,
(x2)
