

(I Can't Believe) She Gives It All to Me

Conway Twitty

I pinch myself when I wake up each mornin'
'Cause I'm constantly amazed when I see
Exactly everything I've always wanted
But I cant believe she gives it all to meMmm, lips that warm my face with mornin' kisses
Arms that reach to hold me tenderly
And love that always satisfies completely
But I cant believe she gives it all to meShe gives me more than any one man deserves
I who have everything am nothing without her
Somehow she knows I need her desperately
I can't believe she gives it all to me
