

Jesus Alone

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

[Verse 1]

You fell from the sky
Crash landed in a field
Near the river Adur
Flowers spring from the ground
Lambs burst from the wombs of their mothers
In a hole beneath the bridge
She convalesce, she fashioned masks of clay and twigs
You cried beneath the dripping trees
Ghost song lodged in the throat of a mermaid[Chorus]

With my voice

I am calling you

[Verse 2]

You're a young man waking
Covered in blood that is not yours
You're a woman in a yellow dress
Surrounded by a charm of hummingbirds
You're a young girl full of forbidden energy
Flickering in the gloom
You're a drug addict lying on your back
In a Tijuana hotel room[Chorus]

With my voice

I am calling you

With my voice

I am calling you[Verse 3]

You're an African doctor harvesting tear ducts
You believe in God, but you get no special dispensation for this belief now
You're an old man sitting by a fire, hear the mist rolling off the sea
You're a distant memory in the mind of your creator, don't you see?[Chorus]

With my voice

I am calling you

With my voice

I am calling you[Post-Chorus]

Let us sit together until the moment comes[Chorus]

With my voice

I am calling you[Post-Chorus]

Let us sit together in the dark until the moment comes[Chorus]

With my voice

I am calling you

With my voice
I am calling you
With my voice
I am calling you
With my voice
I am calling you
