If I'd Found The Right Words To Say

Snow Patrol

Right about now, if I'd found the right words to say
I'd tell you, you're safe and take hold of your hand
I'll be here by your side for the rest of your life
Our bodies could fall off the end of the world
Something told me we'd be happy forever
I don't see how this could change any of that
I will follow your ghost as it climbs up the rock-face
And lie with you on the grass above
And I'd like to change all this
And I'd like to wake up from this
By your side
How did we ever survive for this length of time?
Living with only a care for one thing
But the light that shines from her whenever she's happy
Is worth every minute that we've saved ourselves
Maybe there's hope in just one final second
A flash of her love, as she waves us goodbye
Don't torture yourself with what we might have given
Did everything that we could ever do
And I'd like to change all this
And I'd like to wake up form this
By your side
