Bowling For Soup

I met her just today but I've seen her before
Now I sit beside her
She told me her name, I said, "That's my favorite song"
And she said she's never heard it
She broke my train of thought when she told me a secret
The one about a friend now
I felt her hand upon my knee, I guess I forgot to breathe
But only for a moment
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now
I might be dreamin'
And if I am don't tell me I don't want to know
She got up to get a beer, so I moved closer to her chair
And she pretended not to notice
Well I hope she doesn't leave 'cause I'd like to talk some more
Before I have to go, now
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now
I might be dreamin'
And if I am don't tell me I don't want to know
I guess my talk was just too small, I'm not getting anywhere
But I've been here before
So I'll just drive home by myself and drift away to sleep
I guess it's no big deal, big deal
They finally closed the doors so I walked her to her car
And the rain began to pour
And with a smile she said goodbye and I watched her drive away
Well I guess I lost again, now
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now
I might be dreamin'
And if I am don't tell me I don't want to know
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now
I might be dreamin'
And if I am don't tell me I don't want to know
Don't tell me I don't want to know
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now

I might be dreamin'
And if I am don't tell me I don't want to know
All the while I'm thinking
That I can't believe she's here with me now
I might be dreamin'
If I am don't tell me I don't want to know
