Dead Moon Rising

Mystic Prophecy

The darkness comes out of her shell
Yet another cold night in Hell with all the pain
The dying light is losing its glow
And my last glimmer of hope now fades awayIt is starting to rain again
I'm coming closer to my end with every breath
The creepy shadows are growing pale
And the rising glow brings along the sense of deathI can feel Her presence nowDead Moon Rising
Bleeding red light over the sea
- I hope this time She came for me
- I hope this time She sets me freeMy wounds are open wide
The freezing wind blows right inside and feels like ice
The eerie glow fires up the sky
And She takes away my sight with Her shineI can feel Her all aroundDead Moon Rising
Bleeding dead light over the sea
- I hope this time She came for me
- I hope this time She sets me freeDead Moon Rising
Bleeding dead light over the sea
- I hope this time She came for me
- I hope this time She sets me free
