

Piano Song

The Districts

It's gone far for my reaches
But I'm accustomed to it by now
And that's what I'm afraid of I used to read your letters
And sit down and wonder
Wondering what it was you left out
And that's what I'm afraid of If you had been my scare
Days and nights
Out, in, and all
That's what I'm afraid of Aw it's theft short of glimmers
Fast glimpses gas of feeling scared to falter
'cuz it's so hard to fill my lungs so quick
To last me underwater
And that's what I'm afraid of
And that's it, I'm afraid
And that's what I'm afraid of
That's it, I'm scared
Scared without you
I just can't have you Well if you got a handle and
Won't you come into the bone again?
Why don't you tear my heart open just so you can see? I've gone on and I've seen it
I'm used to it by now!
And my [?] these shudders
Just like the rolling thunder Seems just like another
Thought maybe before
Rumbles through my head just like the rush of water
I count my blessings trying to fall asleep
Believe the dark can't see [?] this I don't know where we're going That's what I'm afraid of That's it, I'm afraid
That's what I'm afraid of
That's it, I'm scared
Scared without you
I just can't have you See, if you got a handle and
Won't you come into the bone again?
Why don't you tear my heart open just so you can see? But I don't want you to know
That I don't want you to go And I don't need you, you know
We could be farther from the truth x2x2 x6 If you got a handle and
Won't you come into the bone again?
Why don't you tear my heart open just so you can see?

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>