

If It's Lovin' That You Want

Rihanna

I wanna let you know
That you don't have to go
Don't wonder no more
What I think about you If it's lovin' that you want
You should make me your girl
(Your girl)
If it's lovin' that you need
Then baby come and share my world
(Share my world) If it's lovin' that you want
Come and take a walk wit me
(A walk wit me)
Cause everything that you need
I got it right here, baby
(Baby) Now it's obvious you need a friend
To come hold you down
Be that one to share your everything
When no one's around Baby come tell me your secrets
And tell me all your dreams
Cause I can see you need someone to trust
You can trust in me So just call me whenever you're lonely
I'll be your friend I could be your homey If it's lovin' that you want
Then you should make me your girl
(Your girl)
If it's lovin' that you need
Then baby come and share my world
(Share my world) If it's lovin' that you want
Come and take a walk wit me

(Baby) It's been so long I've had this feelin'
That we could be
Everything you've ever wanted
In your, your fantasy I won't push too hard to break your heart
Cause my love's sincere
And I'm not like any other girl you know
So let me erase your fears So just call me whenever you're lonely
