

One More Chance

Jean B. Gerbier

One more chance

You've confessed to your diary, that you are mine.
Before you cheated on me. you taught me that love is not forever. Me and you had undeniable good times together.

Chorus

one more chance, you and I should be together.
One more chance, don't try to break my heart.
One more chance, won't you come back in my arms.
One more chance, I want you to unbreak my heart.

As a charismatic charmer brightens a party, you made love to me thousands of times, there is no need to seek for another lover. I can always please you.
