

Dehumanized

Disturbed

Lost in slumber, a threat to no one
Weak and humbled in my disgrace
Sweet departure is what I long for
Careless moments to comfort me
Ooh, dead philosophy
If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again
Left behind
Too determined, to be forgotten
Nothing left to enrapture me
Hard and silent but softly breaking
No beloved to comfort me
Ooh, dead philosophy
If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again
Feel the determination
Built into my mind
You're never gonna find me
I'll wipe the world away
Your face it will remind me
Just how much I have to leave
If I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again
Said, if I offer you my soul
Will you carry me away?
I cannot be the only one
To be dehumanized again
Into my mind
