If I Were You

Terri Clark

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You were standin' at my front door
When I came home tonight
And I could tell by the look you gave me
You were needin' my adviceYou say you want more out of life than he can give you
As a tear rolls down your face
But girl, I've seen the way he looks at you
And I know someone, who'd gladly take your placeIf I were you
I'd run back home tonight
Tell him everything's all right
Yeah, I know what I'd doIf I were you
I'd never let him go
I'd have someone to hold
My whole life through
If I were youYou shouldn't think you're missin' out on something
Because you wear a wedding band
'Cause, I can't seem to find somebody
Who wants more than just a one night standYou know this single life I'm livin'
Ain't all it's cracked up to be
So, you've come to the wrong place
If what you want is sympathyIf I were you
I'd run back home tonight
Tell him everything's all right
Yeah, I know what I'd doIf I were you
I'd never let him go
I'd have someone to hold
My whole life throughIf I were you
I'd run back home tonight
Tell him everything's all right
Yeah, I know what I'd doIf I were you
I'd never let him go
I'd have someone to hold
My whole life through

If I were you, if I were you
