Our Own World

Nitzer Ebb

we'll never be broken not like the morning when the sky through the night comes yawning no indecision faded at last too late to change our past as you look to me so i look to youuntil finally we both can seeunder, over inside uswe're in our own worldcoming through the darkness up across the ocean
we fall
in deep emotion
this understanding though we're not together naked with hearts laid bare but i think of you as you think of me until illogically you're here with meunder, over inside us we're in our own worldshut them out we're gonna scream and shout gonna shut them out gonna scream and shout gonna shut them out gonna scream and shoutwe'll shut them out they'll scream and shout we'll shut them out they'll scream and shout she'll shut them out they'll scream and shoutwe'll shut them out, out, out they'll scream and shout, shout, shout we'll shut them out this is eternal
this is the future love's running wild like a creatureor move a mountain can't undermine uswe shall always remain i'm touching you inside your touching me inside until eventually there's nowhere to hideunder and over inside us we're in our own world we're in our own world in our own world, in our own world
