Rock 'n' Roll

Lou Reed

Jenny said, when she was just five years old
You know there's nothin' happening at all
Every time she put on the radio
There was nothin' goin' down at all, not at allOne fine mornin', she puts on a New York station
And she couldn't believe what she heard at all
She started dancin' to that fine, fine, fine, fine music
Ohh, her life was saved by rock 'n' roll
Hey, baby, rock 'n' rollDespite all the amputation
You could dance to a rock 'n' roll station
And it was all right, you know it's all right
Hey, babeJenny said, when she was just five years old
You know there's nothin' happening at all
Two TV sets, two Cadillac cars
Ahh, it ain't helping us at all, not at allOne fine morning, she heard on a New York station
She couldn't believe what she heard at all, not at allDespite the amputation
You could dance to a rock 'n' roll station
It was all right, it was all right
Oh, now here comes now, nowJenny said, when she was just five years old
You know there's nothin' happening at all
Yeah, every time she put on the radio
There was nothin' goin' down at all, not at allThen one fine morning, she put on a New York station
And she couldn't believe what she heard at all
She started dancing to that fine, fine music
Ahh, her life was saved by rock 'n' roll, rock 'n' rollDespite all the amputation
You could dance to a rock 'n' roll stationIt's all right, it's all right, it's all right, it's all right
It's all right, it's all, it's all right, it's all right
Baby, baby, baby, baby, all right
