

Martha Sways

Andy Shauf

Martha stands
pretty just like you
i held her close
like i held you
martha swaysand i follow suit she fills my glass
and i toss it back into the space that once held youand dance dance to the radio while the devil takes control there's a weight
holdin' me downMartha says
it's all in my head
i look at the lights
dancing in her eyes
and i wanna die
dance dance to the radio
