

I'm Insane

Dinosaur Jr.

If I ran away today
Will you call me back tomorrow?
It took some time to arrange
With trust, space will follow
Out to find the things you need
Your connections hard to swallow
Still things you tell me when your eyes
Would track me down keepin' you hollow
Throat starts to drain
I've done it way too many times to get away
Gone in a state, by my water
Can you help bring it back to me
[Incomprehensible] follow
And how'd you get away
If I ran away today
Will you pull me back tomorrow?
It took some time to arrange
Your connections hard to swallow
I know you're somewhere, I'm insane, yeah, yeah
It's [Incomprehensible] on my brain, yeah, yeah
Smack me out, [Incomprehensible] exchange, yeah, yeah
To have the strength to stake my claim, yeah, yeah
Have you placed it? But I can't taste it
Will I waste it? It's a shame to waste it
Time to face it, now gonna go away
I know you're somewhere, I'm insane, yeah, yeah
It's [Incomprehensible] on my brain, yeah, yeah
Smack me out, [Incomprehensible] exchange, yeah, yeah
To have the strength to stake my claim, yeah, yeah
I know you're somewhere, I'm insane, yeah, yeah
To have the strength to stake my claim, yeah, yeah
