Bad Philosophy

Jeremy Redmore

They're calling my name it's been an hour or two, oh oh
But I don't complain cos now I'm seein' you, oh oh
I'm second in line I got a point to prove, uh huh
But now I got time I will be winning and winning and winningAnd you'll be good to me, with just a little bit of my bad philosophy
I'll get you to be good to me, with just a little bit of bad boy philosophyI woke up this mornin' I was seein' stars, oh oh
Yeah you've been performin' glad I, took that chance, oh oh
But what can I say, I haven't given you all, uh huh
You'll know when I do, cos you'll be beggin' and beggin' and beggin'And you'll be good to me, with just a little bit of bad girl philosophy
I'll get you to be good to me, with just a little bit of bad boy philosophyWell now that I know you girl, I just want more, you know I'm just so sure, I'm gonna be winning and winning and winning and winning. And beggin' and beggin' and beggin' and beggin and...Oh, my bad philosophy
Oh, my bad philosophy
Oh, my bad philosophy
Oh, my bad philosophyDarling you'll be good to me, with just a little bit of bad girl philosophy
I'll get you to be good to me, with just a little bit of bad boy philosophy
Darlin' you'll be good to me, with just a little bit of bad girl philosophy
Oh I'll get you to be good to me, with just a little bit of bad boyOh, my bad philosophy
Oh, my bad philosophy
