

Where Does the Time Go? ('98 Version)

Julia Fordham

(duet with Curtis Stigers)If I could have a pound for every moment

I spent worrying

On all the little things in life that

Frankly there's no hurrying

Then I would be a rich girl

I wanna be a rich girl soon

But going at this rate

I think it might well take

Till there's life on the moonOh, where does the time go?

Does anyone know?

Where does the time go?

Does anyone know?

Where does the time go?

Does anyone know?If I could have a sneak preview

To all the earthly reasons

It takes to make the theme of time

I'd be a man for all seasons

And I wouldn't have to worry

Wouldn't have to worry

oh no no no

It seems kind of funny

there's some things I'll just never know[chorus]We were saying

The other day

How it's really amazing

The days just seem to slip away

And it is right before

Our very eyes

There's some things that

We'll never, never know[chorus]If I could have a pound for every moment

I spent worrying

On all the little things in life that

Frankly there's no hurrying

Then I would be a rich girl

I wanna be a rich girl soon

But going at this rate

I think that it might well take

Till there's life on the moon[chorus]

[etc.]

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>