

Strange Behavior

Macy Gray

This is the story
About two people in love We were happily married
Until he waved a gun at me
I said What's with all your strange behavior He said, I love you, baby
But you got a big insurance policy
And I really need the paper Strange behavior by the sea
He'd be here but he's deceased
Strange behavior I had a big insurance policy
And he had a big insurance policy too I said, Baby if you get a job
You would not have to shoot me now
He said, Oh my God you're such a hata But then he chickened out
I took the gun and shot him down
'Cuz I really need the paper Strange behavior by the sea
He'd be here but he's deceased
Strange behavior What was I to do
Sometimes it's me or you
I swear that I loved you, baby What's it with the gun?
All I have to say so, I say so
'Cuz I'm rich now Drove his body to the sea
Kissed him on his cold cheek
I said, I guess I see you later And the people all asking me
I say, He'd be here but he deceased
Then I go and spend my paper Strange behavior by the sea
He'd be here but he's deceased
It's a strange behavior, strange behavior Strange behavior by the sea
He'd be here but he's deceased
Strange behavior

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>