

A Dream Or Two

Charlie Landsborough

If ever you're alone
And life becomes
A stone around your neck
And hard times beckon you
In your heart
Always carry a dream or two Don't let the shadows creep
Into the hope that keeps
All fears at bay
And luck will favor you
In your heart
Always carry a dream or two
A dream is a magic boat
That keeps your soul afloat
A dreams a prayer the angels wrote
And only those with loving hearts can see
So open up your heart and dream with me I'd gladly throw away
The gift that yesterday has given me
If only I could be with you
In my heart
I still carry a dream or two A dream is a magic boat
That keeps your soul afloat
A dreams a prayer the angels wrote
And only those with loving hearts can see
So open up your heart and dream with me
I'd gladly throw away
The gift that yesterday has given me
If only I could be with you
In my heart
I still carry a dream or two In my heart I still carry a dream of you
