

Full Collision

Violens

It's perfect defense to surrender common sense
You need to let it get the best
You didn't understand i guess Anything entailing seams it not as steady as it seems
You gotta give it time to pass
They'll only tell if you ask The many things could not say Become the secrets pushing us away A collision breeds a life
A decision to deny
So many of us to crash
'cause will this really ever last? A river falling steams Not as tragic as it seems Shouldn't you let it come to pass living in temple of glass? The many thing you could not say Become the secrets pushing us away
