

Still Fallin

Hunter Hayes

You'd think for all the days I've known you
That I would have you memorized by now
With Every question answered,
Every single page turned
But you keep me on the edge somehow And every day with you is still a mystery
With the sweetest story's falling from your lips
I hold on to every word,
Like it's the first one that I've heard
It's the only time I've ever felt like this this But after all this time, you'd think I'd be used to the pull of your gravity
And after flying so high for so long, who would think
I'm still learning, still burning, still fallin', still fallin' I still reach for your hand because I need it
And your kiss is still the spark that lights a fire
You're still laughing with me,
And we're still making memories,
I'm still a fool for you, and there's a million reasons why After every late night street light drive
Every love you miss you kiss goodnight
Girl, your name is still my favorite
Always will be and I'm still wanting, still all in, I'm still fallin' I'm still fallin',
Still chasin', still nervous, still reelin', still dreamin' about this And after every sunrise holding you,
After all the crazy we've been through Every day and every minute girl it's something new,
I'm still learning, still burning, yeah still wanting, still all-in, still fallin'. Still falling.
