

This Flame

Margaret Becker

The greatest love
I have ever found
Was like a treasure
Buried in a field of stones
Hidden there
In the hardened ground
Was a gift more precious than gold
So, I gave
All I owned
Just to make it mine
No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide
All my world is in You
I will never leave Your side
And this flame will never die
The finest love
I have ever known
Was like a pearl
That many dream they'll find
Oh, what joy
When I held that love
And I know that it could be mine
So, I gave
All I owned
Just to make it mine
No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide
All my world is in You
I will never leave Your side
This flame will never die
I believe
That a love like this
Will never come to an end
All I have
And all my life
I'd give it all again
No price is too great
No mountain, too high
No distance, too far
No ocean is too wide
All my world is in You
All my world is in You
