

Long Division

Death Cab for Cutie

His head was a city of paper buildings
In the echoes that remained of old friends and lovers
Their features bleeding together in his brain, ohh
But once it starts it's harder to tell them apart, ohhHe was always distracted
By the very mention of an open door, ohh
'Cause he had sworn
Not to be what he'd been beforeTo be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
To be a remain, remain, remain, remainderThe television was snowing softly
As she hunted for her key
She said, she'd never envisioned
Him a type of person capable of such deceit, ohh, ohhAnd they carried on like long division
'Cause it was clear with every page
Oh, that they were farther away
From the solution that would playWithout a remain, remain, remain, remainder
Without a remain, remain, remain, remainder
Without a remain, remain, remain, remainder
Without a remain, remain, remain, remainderHe had sworn not to be what he'd been beforeTo be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
To be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
To be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
To be a remain, remain, remain, remainderTo be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
To be a remain, remain, remain, remainder
