

Across the River (Live 1980)

Willie Nile

I saw you walking, I heard you cry
I saw you leave, I wonder why Were they all, cruel to you break your heart, through and through Put your head down in my arms and tell me what went wrong Across the river, across the bay people starving, every day nearly naked, pale and wan with crowds of people, looking on Hearts and pounding, heads are still as tears begin to fall, I'm dreaming Baby, hold me, always let me know Darling, hold me, never let me do
I saw you walking, I heard you cry
I saw you leave, I wonder why all those ages, all these years
as tears begin to fall, I'm dreaming Baby, hold me, always let me know Darling, hold me, never let me do

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>