

Pop Up City

The Pop Ups

Once upon a time

There was a land

There was a city in the land

It was a Pop Up CityPage 1, a picture of the sun above the radio station

Page 2, a picture of the zoo, a lion and a gnuPop Up City

Turning the pages

Pull down the tab

Out come the pictures

Of our Pop Up CityPage 3, a picture of the sea with a coconut palm tree

Page 4, a picture of a store, a bell rings on the doorAnd it's all made of paper

the pictures are moving it's telling a story of our Pop Up CityPage 5, the band had a long drive but finally arrived

Page 6, they pull out all their tricks in the theater made of bricksSee the guitars, everyone's dancing

The crowd's going wild, they all live in the cityThere's a school, there is a restaurant, there's hospital, and a fire station, there is a laundromat, and a library, there is a movie theatre, and a grocery store, there is a pet store, there is a playground, there are houses, and there are lots of roads, there's a bridge, and a bus station, there's no alternate side and free municipal parking!Page 7 the encore is in session, the amps turned to 11.

Page 8, we exit out the gate, get ice cream before it's late

Page 9 we had a splendid time, but now we must unwind.

Page 10, say goodnight to my friends wake up and do it all again!

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>