

With You Now

I Was Totally Destroying It

Look away, do I take a chance on Living by the notion of let down emotions
Either way, we all go alone
Living through the moments of let down emotions
Look away, from your lower moments
Living by the notion of fairytale devotion
Either way, we all go alone
Letting go of notions, getting all our hopes up
Our hopes up?
Like a worn down road, like an angry angel
For the last time, for the last time, for the best time
There's a way, a way, my love
It's like mirrored glass
Look away, fall alone, turn back or carry on
To wish love on loveless ones
It's a foolish pass
Set it up, watch it fall, burn it down or sound the alarm
Just sound the alarm
Like a worn down road, like an angry angel
For the last time, for the last time, for the best time
There's a way my love will come and find you
Wait one last time...
Oh I look away whenever I am with you now
It's like I'm with you now?
