

Where My Heart Goes

Colton Dixon

Where does my heart go
When I have a choice to make
Who do I follow
When my characters at stake Will I run
From you or into Your arms
Will I fight
To be right where You are
This life is pulling me
A million different ways This is my song that I sing forever
You are my home You are what I treasure
I want You to be where my heart goes
And if it all breaks, if it goes to pieces
You are the one that I will believe in
I know you wont ever let me go
I want you to be where my heart goes Theres no denying
What this world will promise me
But I have decided
You are the only thing I need
So take everything, take everything
Take everything! This is my song that I sing forever
You are my home You are what I treasure
I want You to be where my heart goes
And if it all breaks, if it goes to pieces
You are the one that I will believe in
I know you wont ever let me go
I want you to be where my heart Runs to, cleans to Jesus
I so need you
I want You to be where my heart goes This is my song that I sing forever
You are my home You are what I treasure
I want You to be where my heart goes
And if it all breaks, if it goes to pieces
You are the one that I will believe in
I know you wont ever let me go
I want you to be where my heart goes

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>