

Heir of a Dying Day

Lacuna Coil

He's the one
when you feel the heat
that he makes you feel as a wonder. He promises you no more tears to cry all the colours in the rainbow. come after the rain to please your eyes with all the colours that you cannot see
He came to save us
you will see. standing aside he's the saviour of your only human part you cannot see he came to save us you will see. Breathing as a child is born
as a cancer is killing my past. I'm wondering how long i'll resist
virus into my mind
as a rainbow shines on me
the little light on me
goes on feed it.
