

The Only Girl for Me

Corey Cyr

Sometime late last spring,
Could've been early May
From the first time I saw her face
I was swept away
We went on together as one
Our souls intertwined
I remember the way like it was yesterday
She stole that heart of mine
She is the one I dream about
She is the one I scream about
The one who sets me free
She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
The only girl for me I remember the day we parted ways
She said we'd always love
Now she's gone to the loving arms
The arms of someone else
I wish I had the time to rewind
To the time when she was with me
When we were deep mad in love
And she was my bride-to-be
She is the one I need today
She's the one that keeps me awake
She's the only one who shines a light through me
She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
The only girl for me I know that she can't see me now
For I'm so high above
But I can't help but see her face
Inside the ones I love
If she were to come back my way
Sometime here again
I'm not sure if we would work it out
Or if we would end up friends
I never ever wanna be apart
From the girl I loved from the start
If only she could see

She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
She's the only girl in the world
The only girl for me
