

Right Here

NJ Taylor

Across the universe
There are people that hurt
Afraid to lose control
Cause the pain is unbearable
You're just a lost soul
A heart in pain
Who's afraid to bleed again
But don't worry
I'll be right here
Here to hold your hand If you lose sight
Of your soul
You'll be losing
So much more
Just remember
The beauty of it all
Has been there all along In your heart you'll
Find the answers
Once you face your fears
It will all become
Crystal clear
And I'll be right
In your heart you'll
Find the answers
When you face your fears
I'll be right here, I'll be right here Life can be unfair
Young eyes have seen too much
Making your heart stand still
Fighting this battle uphill
Put your trust in me
Believe there's still hope for humanity
So wipe your tears
I'll be right here
I'll be right here If you lose sight
Of your soul
You'll be losing
So much more
Just remember
The beauty of it all
Has been there all along In your heart you'll

Find the answers
Once you face your fears
It will all become
Crystal clear
And I'll be rightIn your heart you'll
Find the answers
When you face your fears
I'll be right here, I'll be right hereI can be your shelter
I can be your shining light
Show you how to be a soldier
And how to survive the fight
I can be your shelter
I can be your shining light
Show you how to be a soldier
And how to surviveIn your heart you'll
Find the answers
Once you face your fears
It will all become
Crystal clear
And I'll be right
In your heart you'll
