

Electric Man (Radio Edit)

Mansun

You were the seven deadly sins Making sense in your 'screw me' dress The beautiful ones just slip away To a mirror where we used to kiss With your disco heartbeat You're not even human We're so electric Do you have no passion? Bring your sunshine to me, oh electric man Bring your sunshine to me, oh you're so electric man To me Everything I touch Just falls to bits So trust in me It brings us close Electric man Will save our souls Bring your sunshine to me, oh electric man Bring your sunshine to me, oh you're so electric man To me So I took advice and changed a little Hope that others like me more Hope that you would trust me once again Once again, once again I am lonely once again I hope that you would trust me once again Bring your sunshine to me, oh electric man Bring your sunshine to me, oh you're so electric man To me Bring your sunshine to me, oh electric man Bring your sunshine to me, oh you're so electric man To me Bring your sunshine to me, oh electric man Bring your sunshine to me, oh you're so electric man Bring your sunshine, bring it to me Sunshine, sunshine, bring it to me Bring it to me, bring it to me Bring it to me, bring it to me La, la la la, la la la la, la la, yeah yeah yeah yeah Ooh, the sunshine, bring it to me, yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah
