

More Alive Than Dead

Joseph

Put your arms around
Put your arms around
Something breathing
I am here with you
But so is our present, past
We tried escaping And if I let this phase me
My old life starts replacing
You and I, you and I, you and I
Get these memories out of my head
Make me more alive than dead So put your arms around me
And put the cards on the table
It's just you and I with no distractions
Our ghost behind us
Cause if we let this phase us
It might overtake us
You and I, you and I, you and I know that we'll survive
If we can let the dead just lie
And focus on the life that lies ahead
