Bless The Lord

Shaun Groves

I tremble at Your presence
Shaken by the truth, that You are God
No deed can bring You pleasure
Or word add a measure to who You areBless the Lord, let all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall and rulers crawl
Before Your throneI lift my heart in worship
Taken by the truth that You are God
Silenced by Your virtue
Surrendered and in an awe of who You areBless the Lord, let all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall and rulers crawl
Before Your throneBless the Lord, let all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall and rulers crawl
Before Your throneI wanna give all of me
I wanna give all of me
I wanna give all of me
Im giving You all of me, yeah, yeahBless the Lord, let all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall and rulers crawl
Before Your throneBless the Lord, let all that's in me
Bless the Lord
May kingdoms fall and rulers crawl
Before Your throneI tremble at Your presence
Shaken by the truth, that You are God
