

Rose Garden

Nick Jonas & The Administration

She was brought into this world
Out of a beautiful mistake
When her mom was just a girl
And her daddy didn't stay She was working at age 9
At the flower shop in town
Working not just to survive
'Cause life was throwing her around In the rose garden
Where the rain is falling
And the thorns are sharpened
Rose garden, yeah, rose garden She was young but not naive
Always wise beyond her years
Hoping that no one would see
Every time she dried her tears In the rose garden
Where the rain is falling
And the thorns are sharpened
Rose garden, yeah, rose Don't let those petals fall
Don't let them fall on you
Don't let those petals fall
Don't let them fall on you
Yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, in the rose garden
Where the rain is falling
And the thorns are sharpened
Rose garden, yeah In the rose garden
(Rose garden, yeah)
Yeah, yeah, yeah
(Rose garden, yeah)
Rose
(Rose garden, yeah)
Rose
